

Bio Briefs of Experts at the Reanimation Package of Reforms

Hlib Vyshlinskyi, executive director of the Center for Economic Strategy, member of the RPR Board. Has over 20 years of experience in economic analysis and research. From 2010 to April 2015, Hlib was Deputy Director at GfK Ukraine, the country's leading marketing research agency. He worked at GfK Ukraine since 2003. Prior to that, during 1997-2003 he was Senior Economist, Publications Director and Deputy Director of the International Centre for Policy Studies. Hlib began his career as an economic journalist and editor, working in different mass media during 1993-1998.

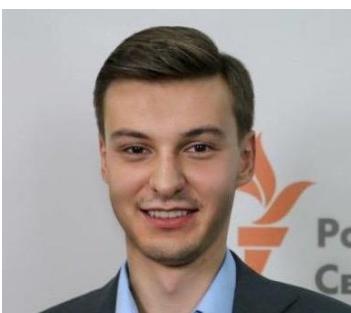

Oksana Nechyporenko, Member of the Board of the Reanimation Package of Reforms, coordinator of the initiative Go Global. Was launching the activity of Edinburgh Business School Eastern Europe in Ukraine in 2009. Was responsible for business development, marketing, creation of client relations system, sales and corporate client's management. Launched the global cooperation with international branches of the School. Obtained Master of Political Sciences from Taras Shevchenko Kyiv National University.

Mykola Bielieskov, IWP analyst since 2016. MA in international relations (strategic studies) of Institute of international relations of Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. Major areas of research and scientific interests: international security and regional security in Europe, foreign policy and strategies of the USA, Russia, China, Japan, foreign policy of Ukraine.

Oleksandr Kalitenko, Transparency International Ukraine senior analyst, coordinator of the whistleblowers protection program. LL.M. in Law of the European Union and International Law. Before being involved in TI Ukraine activity Oleksandr researched the level of juridical protection of whistleblowers (informers) in each of 28 countries of the EU, including from the perspective of respect for human rights, and developed the recommendations for Transparency International Latvia and then for the working expert group, headed by Latvian Prime Minister, regarding the corresponding future Law of Latvia.

Vadym Miskyi, Head of RPR advocacy, former coordinator of RPR expert groups. Supervisory Board member of the National Public Broadcasting Company of Ukraine. In 2013 and 2014 coordinated the regional network of Civil movement CHESNO (monitoring of MPs integrity and accountability, elections monitoring). Master in Applied Mathematics and Public Administration.